

Constantin Brancoveanu University

Constantin Brancoveanu's International Institutional Partners

Name: Università Degli Studi, Di Palermo

Location: Palermo - Italy

Website: http://www.unipa.it/relinter/programma_erasmus.htm

ERASMUS Study Fields: Business studies; Management sciences

Short Presentation: Although its origins and activity are firmly rooted within the Sicilian environment, the University of Palermo has always had a prominent place in international exchanges with universities from European and Mediterranean area, as well as other more distant regions.

Our university is active in the student and lecturer mobility programmes of the European Union, especially Socrates (Erasmus).

We have exchange contracts with more than 120 different institutions and every year over 500 students have the opportunity to either come to Palermo or travel to other universities to study, therefore enriching both their own experience and the understanding of other institutions and countries.

Facilities and Conditions: The University provides you access to residences and canteens. The number of rooms available is scarce so you should take care of your application as soon as possible.

Why Universita Degli Studi Di Palermo:

Although Palermo may not be a city of first choice, Universita degli studi di Palermo is an excellent institution where you can improve, not only your language skills, whether they are in English or Italian, but also yourself as a person and as a future professional.

The city is recognized as a wonderful place to meet people and for students to get together and to learn with each other.

Palermo and the University combined can be the best partner for you.
