

Constantin Brancoveanu University

Constantin Brancoveanu's International Institutional Partners
Name: Baden – Württemberg Cooperative State University
Location: Mannheim – Germany
Website: http://www.dhbw-mannheim.de/index.php?id=153
ERASMUS Study Fields: Business Studies
Short Presentation: As a public university, the institution offer dual learning at its best, a proposition that offers clear benefits to both students and training companies. In fact, more than 90% of DHBW students start their professional career right after graduation. The integration of companies as active partners ensures that the course content is continuously optimized to ensure a high level of employability. A fact, previously recognized by the leading German business magazine WirtschaftsWoche: In the latest issue, their business program, which is one of the biggest in Germany by the number of graduates, was successfully ranked as one of the most excellent ones in Germany.
Facilities and Conditions: DHBW offer their students state of the art libraries, multimedia and computer centers, a multitude of laboratories, including CAD facilities, computer-integrated manufacturing centers, DNC machine tools, robots, automated measurement units, flexible transportation systems, computer pools as well as a variety of simulation equipment.
Person Responsible: Anita DREISCHER
Contacts: International Office (IO), DHBW Mannheim, Coblitzallee 1-9, 68163 Mannheim, Germany Tel: + 49 (0)721 9735-709 Fax: + 49 (0)721 9735-703 E-mail: dreischer@ba-karlsruhe.de
Admission Conditions
Vacancies available (number of places): 5 (Business studies)
Necessary papers: DHBW Mannheim Application Form, CV in English or German, transcript of records, 2 Photos, Exchange Student Course Registration Form, Proof of valid health insurance for the study period in Mannheim.

You can download the forms here:

<http://www.dhbw-mannheim.de/index.php?id=745>

Level of studies: Bachelor

The language and the level required: Good English knowledge

Deadlines for applications: Fall semester: 31th May

Spring semester: 31th October

Other Information

Minimum amount of Erasmus scholarship for this exchange: 300 Euros

Student support: The International Office strongly recommends staying in a student dormitory. In the dormitory, you will most likely get a single room in a "Wohngemeinschaft", where you share bathroom and kitchen with up to 4 or 6 students. That is the most common form of accommodation.

You can have more information here:

<http://www.dhbw-mannheim.de/index.php?id=746>

Grading system: 5-1

Internships: Two partners, the university and the companies, take on the task of training new recruits.

Courses in English for Erasmus students:

You can check the courses available following this link:

<http://www.dhbw-mannheim.de/index.php?id=749>

Costs: Cost of living in university towns is usually a bit more expensive than in non-university towns. The Studentenwerk Mannheim estimates minimum student expenses to be about € 600 per month, as detailed below:

Housing € 225

Food € 135

Health insurance € 60

Clothing € 40

Books € 35

Transportation € 25

Personal hygiene € 15

Miscellaneous € 65

Estimated expenses per month € 600

You can have more information here:

<http://www.dhbw-mannheim.de/index.php?id=747>

Why Baden – Württemberg Cooperative State University: The DHBW graduates are highly regarded by employers and their students attain an impressive level of academic and practical knowledge. More than that, the learning process involves interlocking study and work periods, the programs are flexible and innovative and there is an active cooperation between the university and training companies.