Costs: In Porto you may need a budget of about 400 Euros. For example, a ticket for the metro is about 0.80 Euros, and a bus 1.25Euros. A meal will cost about 5 or 6 Euros per person, but having lunch in the institute's canteen will only cost you about 2 to 3 Euros. Accommodation in a shared apartment (meaning you take one room and share the rest of the house) may cost about 100 Euros, generally with the rest of the house expenses covered, such as water, electricity, etc.
Why ISCET – Porto: You will not only acquire new skills and knowledge during your course of studies, but also enjoy your new life in an exciting environment. Rich from centuries of trade, modern Porto is as much a cosmopolitan centre as it is a city steeped in the historical events of the past.
