

Constantin Brancoveanu University

Constantin Brancoveanu's International Institutional Partners
Name: University of Arkansas
Location: Little Rock – Arkansas – USA
Website: http://ualr.edu/www/
ERASMUS Study Fields: Business studies
Short Presentation: UALR is a metropolitan university on the move, a dynamic learning institution where students find unique learning and internship opportunities provided through one-of-a-kind connections to the state's thriving capital city. With more than 100 programs of study, UALR has an academic program to suit your interests – and an equal number of social and service organizations as well.
Facilities and Conditions: Specialized facilities include a learning resource center, art galleries, radio station, television station, Cyber Café, wireless network, and speech and hearing clinic. The library contains 400,000 volumes, 700,000 microform items, 8,300 audiovisual forms and CDs, subscribes to 2,625 periodicals, and its computerized services include card catalog, interlibrary loan, and database searching.
Person Responsible: Heather BINDER
Contacts: Office of International Services University of Arkansas at Little Rock Stabler Hall, Room 105 2801 South University Avenue Little Rock, AR 72204 Phone: 501.683.7566 Fax: 501.683.7567 E-mail: hxbinder@ualr.edu
Admission Conditions
Vacancies available (number of places): 5 (Business studies)
Necessary papers: English Language Proficiency, Financial Requirements, Additional Documents

Find more at: http://ualr.edu/programsabroad/index.php/home/incoming-exchange-students/
Level of studies: Bachelor
The language and the level required: Good English knowledge
Deadlines for applications: Fall semester (begins in late August), should be received by February 1 Spring Semester (begins in mid-January) – by October 15.
Other Information
Minimum amount of Erasmus scholarship for this exchange:
Student support: The Office of International Services advises students about immigration requirements and transfer credit, conducts international student orientation, assists international students regarding living and studying on an American campus, assists with housing, and provides advisory services for matters involving nonacademic concerns. Representing more than 60 countries, these distinguished international students and scholars enrich the educational experience for all members of our community. You can also check these links: http://ualr.edu/housing/ and http://www.ualr.edu/orientation/assets/SG.pdf
Grading system: F-A or 0-4
Internships: There are internships available, as well as employment Opportunities.
Courses in English for Erasmus students: you can see the available courses at: http://ualr.edu/academics/index.php/home/programs/
Costs: for more information, please visit the links below: http://littlerock.about.com/ http://www.arkansas.com/
Why University of Arkansas from Little Rock: The University of Arkansas at Little Rock is the second largest campus in the University of Arkansas System and the only metropolitan school in the state. What does that mean for you as a student? First of all, this means that while you study, you will be a part of a diverse student population that includes people from all walks of life. Secondly, as a UALR student, you will have unique learning experiences and various internship opportunities because of our location in the state's thriving capital city.